Help Wesleyan Attain The Future It Deserves

As you will read in this publication, both the Annual Fund and the Campaign for Advancement are progressing well. We are obviously pleased to be sending such a report. I want to thank all of you for your support and share some of the indications of our progress.

This is a good time for Wesleyan. We can all be encouraged by the prospects for this fine institution's future. We began this academic year with a freshman class 36% larger than a year ago, and an overall enrollment increase of 16%. The present demographic trend is one of decline in the college-age population, so we can indeed be encouraged by what is happening here.

Five new faculty members joined us this fall. All have their Ph.D.'s. This faculty is very, very good and getting even better. Their concern for the students extends beyond classroom expertise and contributes immeasurably to the collegiality and the "specialness" of this place.

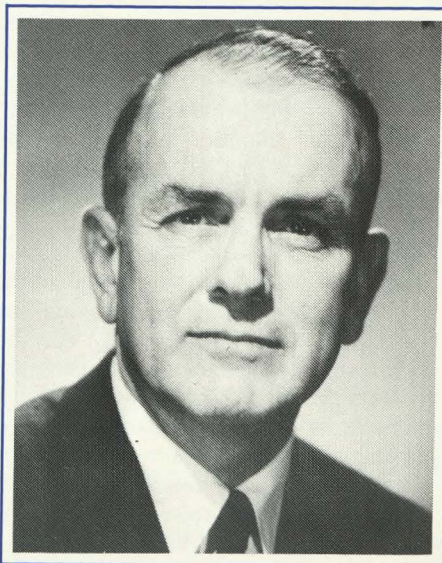

All the members of this community, faculty, students, and staff, have a renewed confidence in the mission of Wesleyan and in its future. We are more than ever intent on providing a superb educational experience. We are confident (and respected national studies support our confidence) that the liberal arts provide the best possible training for fulfilling careers of continuing growth and leadership. We also recognize that the fine arts are of fundamental importance to this culture. We are determined that our fine arts programs will continue to receive the recognition they deserve for their excellence. We believe that our continuing commitment to the liberal and fine arts will assist generations of young women in living enriched, fulfilling lives.

I again thank all of you for your support, and I pledge to you that we shall be good stewards. We are beginning Wesleyan's second one hundred and fifty years with renewed enthusiasm and confidence. Nothing is more important to us, however, than your continued interest and support. Your collegialship is vital to our attaining for Wesleyan the future it deserves.

A Message From The National Chairman Campaign For Advancement Randolph W. Thrower

Be a Part of Wesleyan's Promising Future

Wesleyan has never been more deserving of support than now. President Ackerman, his staff, the faculty and students are doing their part in providing the platform for a Wesleyan future that is more reassuring than at any other time in my more than twenty-five years on the Board. This future includes an excellent educational opportunity with close association with committed faculty members, many of them new additions to the campus, and an appreciation for the ethical qualities of life which reflects the College's present and historical church affiliation. This also provides a climate for development of close and lasting friendships among students and between students, faculty and staff.

Such a noble enterprise requires substantial funding and the times have never been more propitious for generous giving by the friends and supporters of Wesleyan. All that is now needed to complete this great promise for the future is financial support which you and I can, and, indeed, must supply.

Giving to this cause generously, commensurate with the ability of each, will produce the great satisfaction of having a meaningful part in Wesleyan's continuing venture on behalf of young women.

The Campaign for Advancement Passes the $6 Million Mark

New Capital Improvements Planned

Strong support for the Wesleyan College Campaign for Advancement continues as the total passes the \$6 million mark. As of November 30, 1986, gifts from all sources totalled \$6,044,555. With over $\frac{2}{3}$ of the campaign goal pledged, scheduling has begun for other planned improvements.

Phase I of the renovations of the Robert Jenks Taylor Hall for Science and Mathematics and Porter Gymnasium were completed this fall.

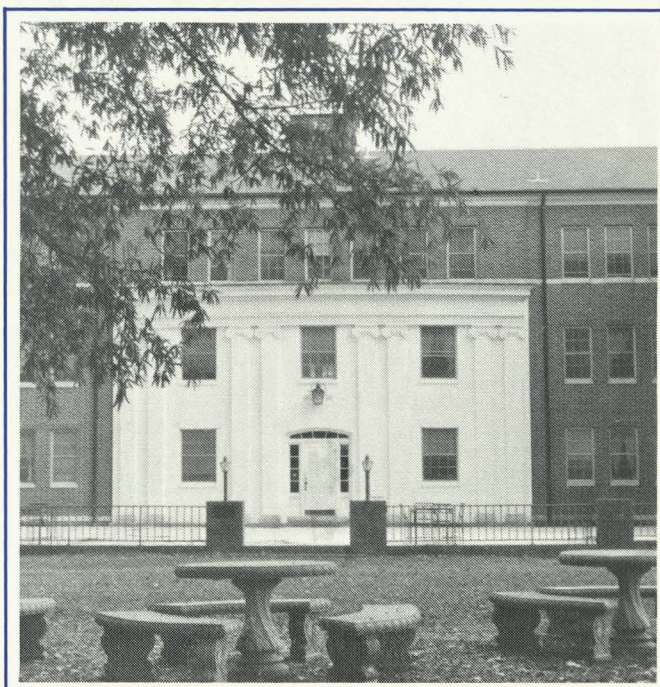

Jones Dormitory To Be Air-Conditioned

Work is scheduled to begin at the end of spring semester, 1987 to install air-conditioning in Jones Dormitory. Opened in 1959, Jones Dormitory was named in honor of C. Baxter and Carolyn Cater Jones as a tribute to their dedication to the College.

Mr. Jones served on the Board of Trustees, including a term as chairman of the board, from 1949 until the time of his death in 1968. Mrs. Jones graduated from Wesleyan in 1917. The Jones family continues its relationship with the College through their son, Frank C. Jones, Wesleyan's current chairman of the board.

Renovation of Jones Dormitory will affect both student life and summer activities at Wesleyan. "Air-conditioning Jones Dormitory will be a 'dream come true' for the students who have wanted air-conditioning for a long, long time," said Dean of Students Glenda Earwood-Smith. "It will make Jones a much more desirable place to live.

"Not only will it improve Wesleyan for our resident students, the addition of air-conditioning in a second dormitory will enhance the facilities available for summer camps and will attract more off-campus groups to Wesleyan," she said. Presently, only the Julian and Grace Laramore Hightower Dormitory is air-conditioned.

The lovely Mary Bennet Cox Dunwody Terrace, which overlooks the lake, was added to Jones Dormitory in her honor by her husband, W. Elliott Dunwody, Jr.

More Renovations Scheduled

The physical improvements of college buildings represent the first step in the campus revitalization program. Taylor Hall now has modernized chemistry and biology labs and refurbished lecture rooms. Phase II of the renovations is scheduled to begin on May 1, 1987 and includes plans for a new chemical storage area, a new air handling system, an elevator, a stairwell, and sidewalks connecting the building to neighboring Tate Hall.

Porter Gymnasium has been painted inside and there is a new exercise and weight room. New lights are being installed. Additional plans include the reconditioning of the gymnasium floor and the remodeling of the locker rooms by May, 1987.

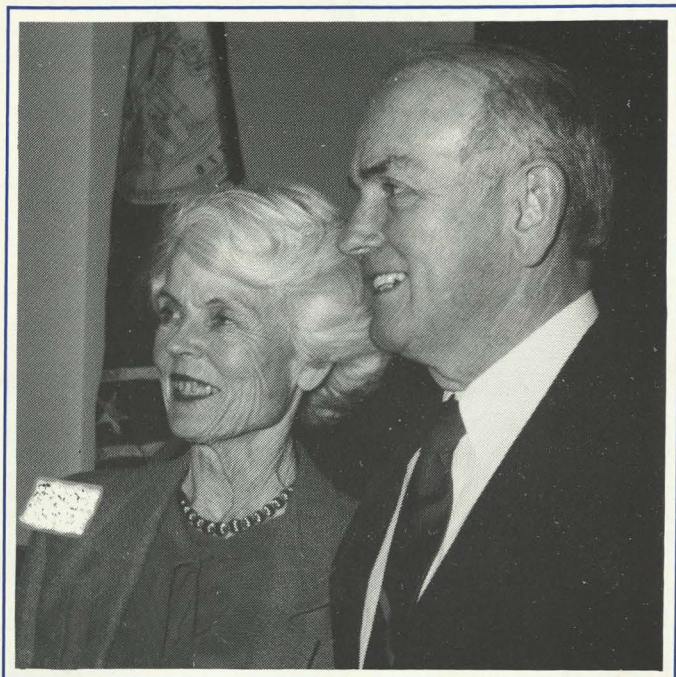

"Those of us working with the campaign are pleased with the progress," said Rose Mary McKelvey, Director of Institutional Advancement. "I am confident that alumnae and friends of Wesleyan College will come forward with generosity to help us complete our campaign goals."

Gifts At Work

Randolph and Margaret Munroe Thrower

Margaret Munroe Thrower Library Book Fund

Established to enrich the library's book collection in the humanities, this fund honors Margaret Munroe Thrower, a 1935 graduate of Wesleyan, and recognizes a special interest on her part. It was set up by Mrs. Thrower's husband, Randolph W. Thrower, national chairman of the Campaign for Advancement, and their five children, Margaret MacCary and Laura Harris of New York City, Patricia Barmeyer and Randolph Thrower, Jr. of Atlanta, and Mary Thrower, now teaching at Collegiate School in Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Thrower has served on the Board of Trustees 26 years, nine as board chairman.

Mrs. Thrower is president of her graduating class and has served her alma mater in many ways, including being president of the Atlanta Alumnae Club. Her family has produced numerous Wesleyan graduates since the College was founded. These include four sisters, Mary Gray Cobey, Julia Woodward, Claire Bates (deceased) and Edith Askew (deceased), three aunts now deceased and several nieces. Munroe family members combined in 1970 to establish the distinguished Munroe Chair of Modern Languages.

Annie Dortch Pitman Fincher

Annie Dortch Pitman Fincher Scholarship

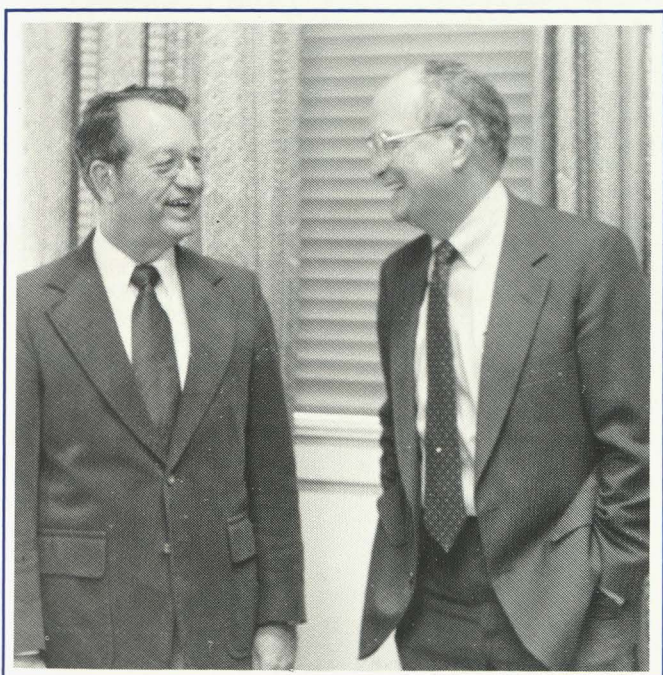

The Annie Dortch Pitman Fincher Scholarship is being established by Mildred Fincher Efland of Dunwoody, GA, a 1942 graduate of Wesleyan, and her sister, Miriam Fincher Todd of Shelby, NC, in memory of their mother, Annie Dortch Pitman Fincher of LaGrange, GA and Myrtle Beach, SC, who died in 1985.

Interestingly, Mrs. Fincher never attended Wesleyan but, according to Mrs. Efland, "she admired Wesleyan and the quality of women it has nurtured throughout its history."

Mrs. Efland remembers her mother loved music and always wished she had attended Wesleyan. Several friends and two of her three daughters were students at the school.

"I'll never forget how thrilled I was when it suddenly dawned on me that a music scholarship at Wesleyan would be the perfect way to honor her memory," she said.

The scholarship will be awarded to an outstanding rising junior to be renewed in the senior year if the quality of academic work merits it. As an award for upperclassmen, the scholarship should assist the school in retaining its best students, explained Mrs. Efland.

Lottie Felder Bowen Scholarship

This endowed scholarship fund was established by R. A. (Poogie) Bowen, Jr. in memory of his mother, Lottie Felder Bowen, who attended Wesleyan as part of the class of 1918 and died in 1970. Mrs. Bowen, a lifelong resident of Bibb County, was intensely interested in and supportive of Wesleyan throughout her life.

Mrs. Bowen provided tuition money for many students as their needs arose. Enclosed with a check she sent the College in 1948 for a particular student's benefit, she wrote, "To me, education is the best investment one can make."

Mrs. Bowen and her husband, R.A. Bowen, Sr., were interested in gardening, and she was active in the Mary Hammond Washington chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The fund awards scholarships to worthy students who demonstrate superior leadership characteristics, strong academic achievement and who have financial need. Preference is given to those who reside in Georgia, particularly Bibb County and the Macon area.

William Wilfred Cobey and Mary Gray Munroe Cobey

Mary Wood Davis and Laura Hays Davis Endowed Book Acquisition Fund

This book acquisition fund for the Lucy Lester Willet Memorial Library was established by Mr. and Mrs. William Wilfred Cobey in memory of Mr. Cobey's great-grandmother, Mary Wood Davis, and grandmother, Laura Hays Davis, both of whom attended Wesleyan.

Mary Ann Graves Wood attended Wesleyan (then called Georgia Female College) in 1839 at the age of 17. Rev. George Foster Pierce was president at that time and a lithograph of him and his father, Rev. Lovick Pierce, still hangs in the home that was once hers in Mt. Pleasant, FL.

Laura Ann Hayes graduated from Wesleyan in 1872 as salutatorian of her class. She was a member of The Philomathean Society which later became Phi Mu.

CAMPAIGN FOR ADVANCEMENT Honor Roll

In grateful appreciation to Trustees, Alumni, Parents, Friends, Corporations and Foundations providing support to help Wesleyan prepare for the 21st century.

The following lists include the names of donors to the Capital Campaign for Advancement during the period July 1, 1984 to October 15, 1986.
